

A home for children in need

When you are looking around,
When you then hear the sound
Of children, crying...
Is then your heart drying?
Or will you stay cool
And act like a fool?

There are children in need
Whom no one will greet,
'Cause they are just alone,
No parents, no home.

Are you able to serve,
Will you upgrade the curves
Their lives go along?
Will you sing them a song?

Dear brothers in Christ,
What do you think is the price
Of being Gods child?
Isn't it a bit wild?

Someone offers a home
To those children, alone.
Please pray for them now,
Fall on your knees, bow!

Then God comes aside
And He will abide.
He will help them all through,
Just as He helps you!
